Guests' Reviews/Comments: Pabua is a nice place to stay in Camiguin. It's ideal for backpackers who are in a tight budget. If you are looking for affordable lodge that will not compromise the service and comfort, then this is the place for you. The port for White Island is just a walking distance from Pabua.

Yumbing is the heart of tourism on Camiguin Island. It's one of the nicest places to go to for vacation in the country. The beautiful beaches and the wonderful nature that surrounds everything where you're there can really give a relaxing feeling.

Pabua Cottages, located in Rocky Village, is one of the perfect accommodations to stay in while in Camiguin. It's family-owned, which gives comfort that the place is well taken care of and well maintained.

Pabua's Cottages provides their own transport when guests want to go somewhere, like to tour certain places. They also provide their own pumpboat if guests want to visit White Island. They also rent out motorbikes for when guests want to go around on their own.

The hotel has a communal kitchen for those who want to make their own food, although the hotel prepares breakfast and dinner for guests. They have a morning call service for those who want to start their day early, and have room service, as well as laundry and cleaning service. WIFI is available in all public areas.

Each of the 10 rooms in Pabua's Cottages has air-conditioning, a television, WIFI access, and a bathroom with toiletries. A voltage converter is also provided.

It is located 10 minutes away from Mambajao Airport by car.
