Guests' Reviews/Comments: We stayed at Seascape for just over a week and loved it! Lonely planet indicates that the property is rundown and fronted by a sea wall – this is not the case at all. The grounds were well kept and the beachfront was wonderful.

This is a really great place. Stayed in one of the spacious bungalows at the beachfront for a very reasonable price. Also the motorbike they provided was brand new and absolutely cheap. It's great sitting in the restaurant and having some tanduay with ice, coke and calamansi (self service, but also very cheap), all in all i absolutely loved staying there. very friendly people, who help you where and when ever they can.

Seascape Dive Resort is tucked away on the sandy beach of Bug-Ong, 5 kms west of Mambajao, offering unobstructed panoramic views of the Bohol Sea and White Island.

The native-built resort has 10 simple, clean and comfortable rooms at very affordable rates.
